

Roundtable - Climate Change SIG Welcome and Network Building

This will be an informal roundtable to introduce the Climate Change Sustainability and Health SIG to attendees, to welcome APS members interested in participating in the SIG, and to provide a forum to connect current members and potential new members. Current members will share our past and future SIG activities and initiatives and listen to new ideas generated by attendees.