

SIG Meeting - Early Career Network

The Early Career Network (ECN) Special Interest Group is hosting an informal and interactive lunch for early career attendees. Anyone who has completed both their terminal research degree and postdoctoral/ clinical training (i.e., internship, residency) and considers themselves early career is welcome to join us for an engaging get together and attendee-driven discussion with the overall goal of promoting early career success.