SBSM SPONSORSHIP & EXHIBITOR PROSPECTUS

Dear Potential Partner,

The Society for Biopsychosocial Science and Medicine (SBSM, formerly American Psychosomatic Society) is excited to be planning our 83rd Annual Meeting, March 11-14 in Chicago, IL. The SBSM Annual Meeting is the premier annual event for scientists and clinicians who integrate biological, psychological, and social factors in the study and treatment of health and disease. We have multiple opportunities for sponsorship and can even customize a package to meet your individual goals.

Our members are fiercely loyal to SBSM—we are not just another scientific society, but an opportunity to get in front of people who will care. We look forward to partnering with you.

Sincerely,
Janet Tomiyama, PhD
SBSM President

Weathering the Storm in Biopsychosocial Science and Medicine

Programming will highlight work on a variety of topics across the biopsychosocial health spectrum.

Who Are We: The Society for Biopsychosocial Science and Medicine (SBSM) has been dedicated to understanding and addressing the full span of biopsychosocial science and its implications for health since it was founded in 1942. As we look to the future while honoring the past, the 83rd Annual SBSM Meeting in 2026 will emphasize programming that highlights biopsychosocial science that ranges from foundational to translational and has implications for some of the most pressing health concerns of our time.

Who Attends: 500 specialists from all medical and health-related disciplines, the behavioral sciences and social sciences.

Sponsorship and Exhibitor Opportunities: Our 83rd Annual Meeting provides multiple sponsorship opportunities, including the Annual Meeting App, Highlight Event, Refreshment Break, and Trainee Travel Award sponsorships. Our tabletop and poster session exhibitor options offer opportunities to profile your company products and services, new book, or research resources (e.g., data repository).

Sponsorship and Exhibitor Opportunities

Exhibitor Tabletop Booth: $2,000

6 foot table in the Grand Court, outside of the Grand Ballroom. Breakfasts and breaks will be stationed here and it is a high foot traffic area for attendees as they navigate between sessions.
